

What is Identity Theft?

Identity theft is illegally using another person's name, Social Security number, driver's license number, birth certificate, credit card, address, telephone number, or any other form of identifying information to obtain credit, money, goods, services, employment, or anything else of value or benefit without that person's consent.